LAW LIBRARIAN

RULES OF THE LAW LIBRARY

EXPLANATORY.

The Law Library was established for the use of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Ohio as an aid to the Court, and is maintained for that purpose. Therefore, all use of the library by persons not of the Court, must be with this consideration in mind, and such as will not interfere with its original purpose.

RULES FOR PUBLIC USE.

The Library is open to all persons who desire to visit it for reference purposes, under the following very simple restrictions:

1. Books must be secured from the assistant Librarians, and will be returned to the shelves by them. This is to secure prompt and effective service.
2. Books must be within call of the Court at all times, and for that reason are not to be taken from the rooms, except by permission.
3. Personal habits, likely to disturb or offend other users of the library, will not be indulged.

HOURS FOR PUBLIC USE.

The Library will be closed to the public on Sundays, Saturday afternoons, and Holidays. On other days, from September 1st to July 1st, it will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., and during July and August from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m.

PREFACE

The Law Library of the Supreme Court of Ohio is one of the best collections of legal publications and one of the best housed in the United States. It is excelled only by those in the older institutions of learning, by one or two libraries owned by the general government, and by two or three libraries owned by private legal societies. It is a comparatively young library, having its beginning about 1860, when, upon the completion of the then new State Capitol building, the law books belonging to the State Library were taken to the rooms assigned to the Supreme Court, and placed under the care of the judicial department. At this time the number of books was less than two thousand. In 1866, when Mr. James Beebe became court crier, and law librarian ex officio, a count of the books showed about 2500 volumes. In 1867 the general assembly created the office of law librarian, who should be crier of the court, and permitted him an assistant. The first Law librarian to be elected under this law was Mr. James H. Beebe, and the first to be elected Assistant Law Librarian was Mr. Frank N. Beebe, who succeeded to the office of law librarian on the death of his father in July, 1880, and served most acceptably as such librarian until his own death while in office, in September, 1903.

Under the elder Mr. Beebe, from 1866 to 1880, the library was increased from a collection of 2500 volumes to one of about 7500 volumes, that number appearing in the first catalog of the library, issued in 1880. At the time of the death of the younger Mr. Beebe, there were about twenty thousand volumes in the library, including very complete departments of American and English reports, legal periodicals, American statute law, and of American and English text-books. The library has an unusually rich collection of old English law, in folios and black-letter, published in the 16th-18th centuries. The present librarian, through the liberality of the recent legislatures, has been able to add to the library needed English and Canadian reports, law and text-books, all the recent American legal publications likely to be of use in Ohio courts, and complete sets of reports from New Zealand, Victoria, New South Wales and Queensland, as well as the reports of the Commonwealth of Australia so far as published. In addition to the books in the main library room there are ten auxiliary libraries on the court floor above, in which are kept complete sets of Ohio reports of all courts, and such other legal publications as are in constant use by the members and officers of the court. The whole number of volumes now in the law library and court offices is 28,000. The accessions run from 700 to 900 volumes per year from the various sources, and are limited only by the funds available for that purpose. The desire of the department is to gather together in this central location a collection of law books that will be of constant use to the bench and bar of Ohio, as well as to the court for which it is maintained.

PREFACE.

INTRODUCTION

TO THE HONORABLE

CHIEF JUSTICE AND THE JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO.

Gentlemen: This catalog of your law library has been prepared under the authority of the following resolution, which was adopted by the general assembly at its last session (98 O. L., 421) :

[Senate Joint Resolution No. 30.]

MR. MATHER

Providing for the printing and distribution of the catalogue of the law library of the supreme court.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio: That the supervisor of public printing is hereby authorized and directed to have printed and bound two thousand copies of the catalogue of the law library of the supreme court of Ohio, for general distribution among the judges, members of the bar, citizens and law libraries of the state, and to pay for the same out of the appropriations for state printing and binding. The commissioners of printing shall let the contract for the printing of the catalogue, by competitive bidding among bidders who are prepared to do catalogue work, and the quality of presswork and typesetting shall be considered in awarding the contract. The books shall be bound at the state bindery in a good quality of law buckram and shall be distributed by the law librarian under the supervision of the supreme court, the expense of such distribution to be paid from the contingent expense fund of the supreme court and law library.

Resolved, further, That the law librarian shall furnish copy for subsequent editions of the said catalog, once in every five years hereafter, which editions shall be printed, bound and distributed hereafter, in the same manner as is above specified.

Two important advantages were gained in this action of the general assembly, in fixing a definite interval between printed revisions of the catalogue, and in providing for special care in the printing and binding of the books. The department previously had been at some disadvantage from lack of suitable legislation.

In preparing the copy for this index-catalog I have availed myself of the helpful suggestions contained in the catalog of the Library of the Department of Justice, Washington (1904), Chicago Law Institute (1902), Library of the Association of the Bar, New York (1892), and of the last catalog of my distinguished predecessor, Mr. Frank N. Beebe (1901), and wish in this manner to express my sense of obligation to the compilers of the publications mentioned.

I have spent some months in a personal examination of many of the books turned over to me with the librarianship, and while the work of classification and arrangement could not altogether be completed for this catalog, it is hoped that what has been done will be found to have increased the usefulness of this publication.

Very respectfully submitted,

E. HOWARD GILKEY,
Marshal and Law Librarian.

Inst., 1, 2, 31.....	Justinian's Institutes, lib. 1, tit. 2, sec. 31.

The Institutes of Justinian are divided into four books,—each book is divided into titles, and each title into paragraphs, of which the first, described by the letters pr., or princip., is not numbered. The old method of citing the Institutes was to give the commencing words of the paragraph and of the title; e. g., § si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. Sometimes the number of the paragraph was introduced, e. g., § 12, si adversus, Inst. de Nuptiis. The modern way is to give the number of the book, title, paragraph, thus;—Inst. I, 10, 12; would be read, Inst., Lib. I. tit. 10, § 12.

ENGLISH LAW TERMS. (Terms of Court and Dates for Reference Purposes.)

By the Act 1 William IV., cap. 70, it is provided that, in A. D. 1831 and afterward—

HILARY TERM shall begin on the 11th, and end on the 31st of January.

EASTER TERM shall begin on the 15th of April, and end on the 18th of May.

TRINITY TERM shall begin on the 22d of May, and end on the 12th of June.

MICHAELMAS TERM shall begin on the 2d, and end on the 25th of November.

By the Act 1 and 2 William IV., cap. 3, it was further provided, "That in case the Day of the Month on which any Term according to the Act aforesaid is to end shall fall to be on Sunday, then the Monday next after such Day shall be deemed and taken to be the last Day of the Term; and, in that case any of the Days between the Thursday before and the Wednesday next after Easter shall fall within Easter Term, then such Days shall be deemed and taken to be a part of such Term, although there shall be no sittings in Bank on any of such intervening Days."

The Long Vacation extends from the 10th of August to the 24th of October.

The first Law Term is called, from St. Hilary, "Hilary Term," because it used to commence on his festival (January 13). The Law Terms were originally regulated by the Canonical Constitution of the Church, which, by exempting certain seasons, namely, Christmas, Easter, Pentecost and the harvest season, from forensic litigation, divided the year into four periods, or terms, called from the festivals immediately preceding their commencement, Hilary, Easter, Trinity, and Michaelmas terms.

In Scotland, the Law Terms are differently arranged. The Court of Session sits from 12th of November to 20th March, and from 12th May to 20th July. But there, as in England and Ireland, the Judges are employed in other business during the intervals.

1751. ANNUS CONFUSIONIS. Until 1752 the English reckoned their year according to the Julian Calendar, the new year beginning on March 25. Parliament in changing to the Gregorian Calendar, the new year to begin Jan. 1, 1752, gave only 282 days to the year 1751.

1752. To change from old style to new, 1752 began Jan. 1, and in that year ten nominal days were dropped. The day following Oct. 4, 1752, was made Oct. 15, 1752.

NON LEAP YEARS. Even centuries not divisible by 400 without a remainder are not leap years; by 400 even centuries are, but A. D. 2000 will be a leap year. There are not $365\frac{1}{4}$ sidereal days in a sidereal year, the Gregorian error being less than one day in 3000 years.

28TH and 29TH of February are legally but one day, the 28th.

0 Year. There is no year 0 in our reckoning. The year before A. D. 1 is B. C. 1.

46 B. C. When the Julian Calendar was adopted was the B. C. "year of confusion," containing 445 days.

A CHRONOLOGICAL HISTORY OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO, INCLUDING THE COURT OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORY.

1787-1907.

The Territorial Court.

1787-1802.

The first judicial system to be inaugurated in that part of the United States which is now known as the State of Ohio, was that put in operation by the "Ordinance of 1787" by which the "territory northwest of the River Ohio" was set apart as a separate governmental unit, and a form of local government provided for it by the Congress. By a reference to Section 4 of the Ordinance, it will be seen that it was provided that there should be "appointed a court, to consist of three judges, any two of whom to form a court, who shall have a common law jurisdiction, and reside in the district, and have therein a freehold estate, in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of their offices; and their commission shall continue in force during good behavior." These judges, with the governor, were to select from the civil and criminal laws of the original states such laws as they deemed suitable for the territory, and were given the power to promulgate such laws, and to enforce them, until they should be amended or repealed by a general assembly to be later organized according to the provisions of the ordinance under which they were appointed.¹

By an act of May, 1800, the original Northwest Territory was divided into eastern and western divisions, and an additional court created for the Indiana or western division, at Saint Vincennes, the court for the eastern division remaining at Chillicothe. Upon the admission of the state into the Union in 1803, and the dissolution of the Territorial Court, Congress by an act passed in February, 1803, provided that a District Court for the District of Ohio, to consist of one judge, should be established at Chillicothe.

THE SUPREME COURT UNDER THE FIRST CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

Under the Constitution of 1802 the number of Supreme Court Judges was the same as under the Territorial form of government, three, with the power vested in the general assembly to authorize the selection of an additional judge at its discretion.

The tenure of office was fixed at seven years, or such part thereof as the judge was well behaved. The salary of the judges was fixed at not to exceed one thousand dollars per annum.

Under these provisions of the constitution and the laws, the General Assembly elected, on April 2, 1803, as the First Supreme Court of the State of Ohio, Samuel Huntington (then the Senator from Trumbull County), Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr. (then a member of the Territorial Court), and William Spriggs (of Jefferson County).

In 1808, Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., having been declared ineligible to the office of Governor of Ohio, to which he had been elected the previous October, was elected an additional Judge of the Supreme Court on the 13th of February by the joint session of the General Assembly which also elected his colleague, Mr. Sprigg, to succeed Judge Symmes, who had resigned to accept the presidential appointment of Registrar of Land at Cincinnati. Owing to these changes the court, after February 13, was composed of Judges Samuel Huntington, William Sprigg, George Todd, R. J. Meigs, Jr.

The membership of the court remained as above until in December, when Judge Huntington resigned to become Governor of Ohio. He was inaugurated December 12. The House of Representatives had preferred charges early in the same month (December) against Judges Huntington and Tod, of the Supreme Court, and Judge Calvin Pease, presiding judge of the Common Pleas Court of the 3rd District, for having, by certain decisions, set aside the act extending the jurisdiction of justices of the peace. Governor Huntington was not tried on these charges, but his associates were brought before the Senate, sitting as a High Court of Impeachment, and were acquitted.

In 1809, Judge Huntington having become Governor, and Judge Meigs having resigned to become United States Senator from Ohio the Governor, in the message announcing these vacancies on the bench (January 31) recommends the abolishment of the fourth judgeship for the reason that it created two courts of two judges each, which, sitting at different parts of the state in riding the circuit, tended to disagreement in decisions, and consequent confusion. Despite this recommendation of the Governor, the Legislature elected (February 17) Thomas Scott (Chief Clerk of the Senate) to succeed Judge Huntington, and Thomas Morris (a member of the House of Rep-representatives) to succeed Judge Meigs as an additional Judge. This created a court of four members; Judges William Sprigg, George Tod, Thomas Scott and Thomas Morris.

Judge Morris failing to qualify as judge, the General Assembly abolished the additional judgeship the following session (1810).

In 1816 the General Assembly was called upon to elect successors to Judges Scott and Irwin, who had resigned, and accordingly in joint session on the 17th day of February elected to the Supreme Court Messrs. Jessup N. Couch, of Ross County; John M'Lean, of Warren County; and an additional judge in Calvin Pease, of Trumbull County.

In 1817 the re-election of Judge Brown to succeed himself continued the membership of the court as constituted the previous year, and this membership was unbroken until his resignation in December, 1818, to become Governor of Ohio. On the 30th day of January, 1819, the General Assembly elected Peter Hitchcock, of Geauga County, to the vacancy thus created.

In 1821 the death of Judge Couch led to the election of Jacob Burnett, of Hamilton County, one of the conspicuous figures in the Territorial Council and in the early history of Ohio, as his successor. The court thus constituted, being again changed in 1822 by the resignation of Judge M'Lean, Charles R. Sherman, of Fairfield County, was elected to succeed him on the 11th day of January, 1823, at which election the General Assembly also re-elected Judges Pease and Burnett.

In 1828 Judge Burnett resigned (December 11), and as his successor the General Assembly elected (February 6, 1829) Joshua Collett, of Warren County.

In 1830 the General Assembly elected the following judges of the Supreme Court: January 30, Elijah Hayward, vice Judge Pease, term expired; February 1, John Milton Goodenow, vice Judge Sherman, deceased; the court thus consisting of Judges Peter Hitchcock, Joshua Collett, Elijah Hayward, and John Milton Goodenow.

During the summer (1830) the court was divided into two sections, sitting in separate localities in the state (under an act of the previous winter), but the illness of Judges Goodenow and Hayward, who finally resigned before the close of the year, deprived the Miami River counties and those of central Ohio of the usual court. An attempt to hold a special session in Columbus, in October, resulted in the coming together of but two of the judges, who, deciding that they were not a quorum of the court, and could neither sit as a court nor legally adjourn, agreed to "separate," which they did, and nothing was done with the fifty cases on the docket. (See Governor's Message.) Henry Brush was appointed by the Governor to succeed Judge Goodenow, resigned, and on the 18th of December the General Assembly elected a successor to Judge Hayward in the person of Ebenezer Lane, of Huron County, and on the 29th of the month elected John C. Wright, of Jefferson County, to succeed Judge Brush, who was not a candidate before the General Assembly. Judge Lane took his seat at once; Judge Wright, on the adjournment of the Legislature.

Judge Hitchcock's term expiring on the 5th of February, 1833, there was a spirited contest in the General Assembly over the election of his successor. The election being ordered for the 16th of December (1832), on that day the assembly met in joint session, but after casting seven ballots, on all of which Reuben Wood, of Cuyahoga County, led, with Judge Hitchcock second and Benjamin Tappan third, the session dissolved without an election and the Senate returned to its chamber. The assembly was called together by another resolution on the next day (17th), and after twelve more ballots, Reuben Wood was declared to have been elected by a majority of one vote.

Several days later the correctness of the count was challenged by a joint resolution and an investigation of the count was ordered, but the title of Judge Wood to his seat was not disturbed.

On February 2, 1835, the Governor reported the resignation of Judge Wright, and on the 28th day of the month the General Assembly, on the fourth ballot, elected ex-Judge Hitchcock, at that time Senator from Geauga County and Speaker of the Senate, to succeed him. In this contest, Senator Anthony, of Clark County, was Judge Hitchcock's principal competitor for the Judgeship, and was (March 6) elected to succeed him as Speaker of the Senate. Judge Hitchcock resigned as Speaker on that day.

Frederick Grimke, of Ross County, was elected on January 30, 1836, to succeed Judge Collett, whose term expired on the 10th of February. By the re-election of Judge Lane for the period of seven years from the 18th day of December, 1837, and of Judge Wood, in 1839, the court as constituted in 1836 continued without interruption until 1842.

Matthew Birchard, of Trumbull County, was elected by the General Assembly on January 15, 1842, to succeed Judge Hitchcock, whose term expired in February of that year, and Nathaniel C. Reed, of Hamilton County, was elected on the 5th of March, to succeed Judge Grimke, resigned. In December, 1844, the term of Judge Lane expired. He was promptly re-elected by the General Assembly on the 5th of the month, but remained on the bench only during the session of the court in Bank, when he resigned. His successor was elected on the 27th of the same month (December), in the person of ex-Judge Peter Hitchcock.

On the 15th day of January, 1847, the General Assembly elected Edward Avery, of Wayne County, to succeed Judge Wood (term expiring), although the Judge was a candidate for re-election. On the 22d day of February, 1849, the General Assembly elected as members of the Supreme Court: Rufus P. Spalding, of Summit County, for seven years from March 5, to succeed Judge Reed, resigned; and William B. Caldwell, of Hamilton County, for seven years from March 7, to succeed Judge Birchard, term expired.

The last change in the court prior to the adoption of the present constitution, was occasioned by the resignation of Judge Avery, and the election of his successor in the person of Rufus P. Ranney, of Trumbull County, on the 17th of March, 1851. The court served as thus constituted until "the second Monday in February, 1852," when the official term of the new officers elected under the constitution began.

THE SUPREME COURT UNDER THE SECOND CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

The Constitution of 1851 made the following provision for the continuance of the work of the Supreme Court:

"The Supreme Court shall, until otherwise provided by law, consist of five judges, a majority of whom competent to sit, shall be necessary to form a quorum," and "the judges of the Supreme Court shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, for such term, not less than five years, as the general assembly may prescribe," also:—

Sec. 11. Schedule. Suits pending in the Supreme Court in bank shall be transferred to the Supreme Court provided for in this Constitution, and be proceeded in according to law.

On the 9th of February, 1852, the then Supreme Court, which had been elected by the General Assembly under the old constitution, and consisted of Judges Peter Hitchcock, Rufus P. Spalding, William B. Caldwell, and Rufus P. Ranney, passed out of existence, and a new court elected by the people of Ohio at the previous election in October, came on the bench in the persons of Judges William B. Caldwell, of Hamilton County (re-elected); Rufus P. Ranney, of Trumbull County (re-elected); Thomas W. Bartley, of Richland County; John A. Corwin, of Champaign County; and Allen G. Thurman, of Ross County.

On the organization of the court, the judges drew lots for the length of their terms, the lot resulting: For one year, Judge Caldwell; for two years, Judge Bartley; for three years, Judge Corwin; for four years, Judge Thurman; and for five years (the length of the regular term, under the new constitution), Judge Ranney. Judge Caldwell was re-elected in 1852, and Judge Bartley was re-elected in 1853, so the court remained as installed in February, 1852, until December, 1854, with the following membership: Judges Caldwell, Ranney, Bartley, Corwin, and Thurman.

1854-55. Judge Corwin resigned in December, 1854, and was succeeded by Robert B. Warden, of Franklin County, who was appointed to the vacancy and served until February 9, 1855, when he was succeeded by Joseph R. Swan, of Franklin County, who was elected to the seat. Judge Caldwell also resigned in the December term of 1854, and was succeeded by William Kennon, of Belmont County, who was appointed to fill the vacancy and then elected at the October election, 1854, to succeed himself. The court for the year 1854 consisted of Judges Caldwell, Ranney, Corwin, Bartley, and Thurman, until the second division of the December term; and of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Thurman, Warden, and Kennon, from that time until February 9, 1855.

1855-56. Judge Swan took his seat on the bench as the successor of Judge Warden and Judge Corwin (as explained above) on the 9th day of February, 1855, the court consisting of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Thurman, Kennon and Swan.

1856. Judge Kennon served to the adjourned session in March, 1856, as did Judge Thurman, the terms of each expiring at that time. They were succeeded by Judges Jacob Brinkerhoff, of Richland County, and Charles C. Convers, of Muskingum County, who had been elected the previous October. Judge Convers resigned in May on account of ill health, never having taken his seat on the bench; he was succeeded by Ozias Bowen, of Marion County, who was appointed to fill the vacancy and elected to succeed himself in October following. The court, from February 9 to May 15, consisted of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff and Convers; and from May 15 to February 9, 1857, of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff and Bowen.

1857. Josiah Scott, of Butler County, was elected to succeed Judge R. Ranney in October, 1856, and took his seat February 15, the court being composed of Judges Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, Bowen and Scott.

1858. Milton Sutliff, of Trumbull County, was elected in October, 1857, to succeed Judge Bowen, and took his seat February 9, 1858, the court consisting of Judges Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, Scott and Sutliff.

1859. William V. Peck, of Scioto County, was elected in October, 1858, to succeed Judge Bartley, and took his seat February 9, 1859, the court consisting of Judges Swan, Brinkerhoff, Scott, Sutliff and Peck. Judge Swan, then Chief Justice, resigned in November, and William Y. Gholson, of Hamilton County, who had been elected in October to a seat in the court, was appointed to succeed him. He took his seat November 8, and entered on his regular term the 9th of February, 1860. The members of the court from November, 1859, to February, 1863, were Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Sutliff, Peck, and Gholson. Judge Brinkerhoff was re-elected in 1860, and Judge Scott was re-elected in 1861.

1863. Ex-Judge Rufus P. Ranney was elected in October, 1862, to succeed Judge Sutliff, and took his seat on the 9th day of February, 1863, the court from this date to December 12th consisting of Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Peck, Gholson and Ranney. On the 11th of December, 1863, Judge Gholson resigned, and Horace Wilder, of Ashtabula County, was appointed for his unexpired term. Judge Wilder was elected to succeed himself in October, 1864. Hocking Hunter, of Fairfield County, was elected to succeed Judge Peck in October, 1863, and took his seat on February 9, 1864, only to resign the same day.

1864. William White, of Clark County, was appointed to the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Hunter, and was elected in October, 1864, for the unexpired term.

1865-1871. Luther Day, of Portage County, was elected in October, 1864, to succeed Judge Wilder, and took his seat February 9, 1865. Judge Ranney resigned on the 23d of February, 1865, and as his successor John Welch, of Athens County, was appointed. He was elected in October following for the unexpired term.

February 9, 1871. George W. McIlvaine, of Tuscarawas County, who had been elected in October to succeed Judge Brinkerhoff, came upon the bench; and on February 9, 1872, William H. West, of Logan County, succeeded Judge Scott.

1873-76. Judge West resigned in 1873 and was succeeded by Walter F. Stone, of Erie County, who was appointed by the Governor, and elected in October to fill the unexpired term. He in turn resigned in September, 1874, and was succeeded by George Rex, of Wayne County, who was appointed by the Governor, and then elected by the people to fill the unexpired term of Judge West. Judge Welch was re-elected in October, 1872, and Judge White in October, 1873; and William J. Gillmore, of Preble County, was elected in October, 1874, to succeed Judge Day. Judge McIlvaine was re-elected in October, 1875.

1876-1881. In October, 1876, W. W. Boynton, of Lorain County, was elected to succeed Judge Rex, and took his seat February 9, 1877, and in October, 1877, John W. Okey, of Franklin County, was elected to succeed Judge Welch. Judge White was re-elected in October, 1878, and in the following year William W. Johnson, of Lawrence County, was elected to succeed Judge Gillmore. Judge McIlvaine was re-elected in October, 1880, and in November, 1881, Judge Boynton resigned, the Governor appointing as his successor, for the unexpired term until the next February, Nicholas Longworth, of Hamilton County, who had been elected for the full term of five years a month before the resignation of Judge Boynton.

Judge Okey was re-elected in October, 1882, but the resignation of Judge Longworth and the death of Judge White, both occurring in March, 1883, created a number of changes in the court in that year. John H. Doyle, of Lucas County, was appointed by the Governor to succeed Judge Longworth, and took his seat in the court on the 10th day of March. Martin D. Follett, of Washington County, was, however, elected to fill the vacancy in October, and qualified on the 8th day of December, Judge Doyle retiring. Judge White, who had served in the court for over 19 years, died on the 12th day of March in the same year, and William H. Upson, of Summit County, was appointed by the Governor as his successor. He took his seat on the 14th of March, but Selwyn N. Owen, of Williams County, having been elected in October for the unexpired term, qualified on the 8th of December, Judge Upson retiring.

The death of Judge Okey, on the 25th day of July, 1885, created a vacancy in the court which was filled by the appointment of Gibson Atherton, of Licking County, who took his seat on the 20th day of August. The October elections resulted in the election of William T. Spear, of Trumbull County, to fill the unexpired term of Judge Okey, and he qualified and took his seat on the 16th day of December, Judge Atherton retiring. At the same election Thaddeus A. Minshall, of Ross County, was elected for the full term of five years to succeed Judge McIlvaine.

Judge Johnson resigned November 9, 1886, and Franklin J. Dickman, of Cuyahoga County, was appointed to fill the vacancy until the next general election. He took his seat November 16. In October previous, Marshall J. Williams, of Fayette County, was elected to succeed Judge Follett. In 1887 Judge Spear was re-elected for a full term, and in 1888 Joseph P. Bradbury, of Gallia County, was elected to succeed Judge Owen. Judge Dickman was re-elected in 1889, Judge Minshall was re-elected in 1890, and Judge Williams in 1891.

In the elections of 1892, under a new law, by which the membership of the court was increased from five members to six, and the terms of office from five years to six, two members of the court were elected in the persons of Judge Spear for the long term of six years, and Jacob F. Burnett, of Hancock County, for five years. Judge Bradbury was re-elected in 1893; Judge John A. Shauck, of Montgomery County, was elected in October, 1894, to succeed Judge Dickman, and was re-elected in 1900. From 1894 to 1899 the sitting judges were re-elected to succeed themselves without exception, and consequently no changes occurred in the personnel of the court. In November, 1899, William Z. Davis, of Marion County, was elected to succeed Judge Bradbury, who resigned January 10, 1900, a month before the expiration of his term. Judge-Elect Davis was appointed to succeed him, and thus went on the bench a month earlier than the time for which he had been elected.

In November, 1901, Judge James L. Price, of Allen County, Chief Justice of the Circuit Courts of Ohio, was elected to the Supreme Court to succeed Judge Minshall, and took his seat February 9, 1902. Chief Justice Williams died in July, 1902, and on the 19th of the month Governor Nash appointed to the vacancy Judge William B. Crew, of Morgan County, who was the candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court on the Republican State ticket, and who was (in November, 1902) elected for the full term. In November, 1903, Judge Augustus N. Summers, of the Circuit Court, was elected to succeed Judge Jacob F. Burket, who retired February 9, 1904; and Judges Spear and Davis were elected to succeed themselves at the November elections in 1904 and 1905 respectively.

TERM OF COURT.

The term of the Supreme Court in its early history was governed by Article III, Section 10, of the Constitution of 1802, which provided that "the Supreme Court shall be held once a year in each county." On March 11, 1853, an act was passed providing "that it shall be the duty of the judges of the Supreme Court of the State of Ohio, to meet annually hereafter in the city of Columbus on the first Monday of December, to hold a term of the Supreme Court." This enactment also provided for holding "special sessions at such times and places, etc."

Subsequent legislation at different times, "fixing the time for holding courts in Ohio," assigned the Supreme Court to the different counties, naming dates.

An act was passed April 7, 1854 (52 O. L., 32), providing "That the Supreme Court, in addition to the terms now provided by law to be held, may hold special or adjourned terms at such times and places as the judges or a majority of them may from time to time determine."

Section 410 of the Revised Statutes, 1880, provides that "The judges of the Supreme Court shall meet annually, on Tuesday after the first Monday in January, in the City of Columbus, to hold a term of the Court." Provision is also made for holding special terms.

LAW DESIGNATING THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

In the Territorial Court (1787-1802) the Chief Justice was appointed by the President of the United States.

Under the First Constitution the Chief Justice (Chief Judge) was that judge whose first commission bore the earliest date.

Under the present law, the Chief Justice is designated as follows:

"The judge of the Supreme Court having the shortest time to serve, not holding his office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the Chief Justice, and as such shall preside at all terms of the Supreme Court; and, in case of his absence, the judge having in like manner the next shortest time to serve shall preside in his stead."

Under the provision of the statute dividing the court into two divisions, "the two judges of the Supreme Court having the shortest time to serve, not holding their office by appointment or election to fill a vacancy, shall be the Chief Justices of their respective divisions."

THE SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONS.

The power of the General Assembly to assist in disposing of the work before the Supreme Court of Ohio by the formation of "Supreme Court Commissions" (Section 21, Article IV), has been invoked twice since the adoption of the present Constitution of Ohio. The appointment of the members of this commission has been vested in the Governor in both instances.

The Commission of 1876.

On the 2d day of February, 1876, the Governor appointed as such Supreme Court Commission, to serve for three years, Luther Day, of Portage County, C. J.; Josiah Scott, of Crawford County; William W. Johnson, of Lawrence County; D. Thew Wright, of Hamilton County; Richard A. Harrison, of Franklin County, and Henry C. Whitman, of Hamilton County. Mr. Harrison refused to accept the appointment and Thomas Q. Ashburn, of Clermont County, was appointed in his stead.

This commission sat until the 2d day of February, 1879, as an auxiliary to the Supreme Court, and assisted in bringing up the docket which had fallen far behind the reasonable time for trial.

The Commission of 1883.

In 1883 the Governor again appointed a commission of five members under an enabling act of the General Assembly, and this commission began its work on the 17th day of April, 1883, and continued on the bench for the period of two years. The commission of 1883 consisted of Moses M. Granger, of Muskingum County, C. J.; George K. Nash, of Franklin County; Franklin J. Dickman, of Cuyahoga County; Charles D. Martin, of Fairfield County, and John McCauley, of Seneca County. This commission adjourned April 16, 1885.
